“Innovations in Caregiving: From Unmet Needs to Measurable Outcomes”

This webinar was held on 4/29 – a part of virtual series, and builds on the series theme of leveraging innovation to reveal unmet needs and catalyze immediate impact for caregivers.

The discussion featured three Massachusetts companies: Torchlight, iRobot, and the human capital firm Leading Indicator Systems. Moderated by MeHI Director Laurance Stuntz, the webinar traced a journey from uncovering unmet needs, to scaling a solution across families of employees, to driving measurable outcomes amidst the pressures brought on by COVID-19.
